

Position Title: Student Research Assistant II

Manager: Winnie Yip, Professor of the Practice of Global Health Policy and Economics, Department of Global Health and Population, Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health

Description: The Department of Global Health and Population at Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health is seeking a student research assistant who will directly report to Dr. Winnie Yip. This position will contribute up to 20 hours per week to the work of the “Compassionate Elder Care Project”. In this role, the student research assistant will examine the concept of meaningful aging using the principles of compassion. Responsibilities will include reviewing existing literature and identifying measurements for meaningful aging, support organizing seminars on Aging Well, examining and synthesizing international experiences in community and home based eldercare models, and preparing of reports and manuscripts. The student RA will help ensure that the purpose and contents of this research project are consistent with the department’s priorities in global population health and policies in elder care models to improve the well-being of the elderly.

Start Date: TBD

End Date: 04/30/2026

Schedule: Part Time, max 20 hr/week

Hourly Rate: $23.78/hr

If interested, please contact Winnie Yip, wyip@hsph.harvard.edu with your resume and cover letter.