

TeamBirth MPH Internship Project '25-'26

Contact: Jonathan Wolinsky; jwolinsky@ariadnelabs.org

Deliverable / Goal(s)	Components / Process / Methods
Catalog of TeamBirth Stories Develop a catalog of lived experiences of TeamBirth, as told by doctors, midwives, nurses and hospital administrators across the country <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Catalog will be mixed media; video clips of recorded sessions and interviews, transcripts of conversations, and/or written summaries of interviews<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Each entry will have markers that correspond to identified theme(s)● This catalog can serve several purposes:<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ This resource will be used to support TeamBirth implementation in its current state○ This resource will promote TeamBirth spread at scale (access on a much wider scale, beyond our current handful of “story-holders)○ Likely opportunity for publication (have current request to submit “What Makes a Good Huddle” to JOGNN● Extended research opportunity to cross-reference thematic analysis from this cataloging of stories, with themes from over 20,000 patient survey results	Gathering past and current TeamBirth stories and conducting a thematic analysis to inform the cataloging process for the deliverable Sources: <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Recordings of past TeamBirth sessions<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Completely flexible timing; intern can comb through recordings and transcripts independently● Qualitative Interviews<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ With DDI staff, to tell their stories, retell other stories, and identify candidates for external interviews○ With external implementation partners that have been identified by DDI staff that have a valuable TeamBirth story● TeamBirth sessions and coaching calls<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Intern can join when schedule allows